PROFESSIONAL SUMMARY | STRATEGY & OPERATIONS LEADER

Harvard Applied Math graduate and strategic operator with 7+ years in strategy, operations, and finance at high-growth consumer and fintech companies. Partners with the C-suite to set the plan, build the numbers behind it, and drive cross-functional execution, from Harry's IPO-readiness revenue model to the ACH+ launch at Amex. IRONMAN Copenhagen and three-time 70.3 finisher.

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

American Express Credit Card Company / Fintech — New York, NY

Senior Strategy Manager, Global Pricing Strategy — Mar 2024 – Aug 2024 (MEDICAL LEAVE - Present)

- Led the competitive intelligence and market analysis workstream for the ACH+ product launch; turned the research into an executive decision memo and go-to-market plan that aligned senior stakeholders across teams
- Built pricing and revenue forecast models across 5 card tiers and multiple countries, with scenario and sensitivity views that identified levers for a 5% revenue increase; presented findings to the C-suite to guide investment decisions

Harry's, Inc (Mammoth Brands) Consumer Packaged Goods Company — New York, NY

Strategy Manager / Brand Manager, US Personal Care — Jul 2022 – Feb 2024

Strategy Senior Associate, Harry's — Aug 2020 – Jun 2022

- Owned revenue strategy and planning for the $250M US Personal Care portfolio; built the revenue models and quarterly Board materials leadership used to set annual targets and allocate spend
- Designed the company's standard monthly and quarterly business review templates, setting the operating rhythm and reporting standards used across the organization
- Supported key retailer relationships: helped sell Harry's category strategy to major mass retailers, built the category presentation for a new Walmart buyer's onboarding, and built a club channel forecast that BJ's adopted

Kantar, Consulting Division Brand Management Consulting Firm — New York, NY

Consultant (promoted from Analyst) — June 2018 – August 2020

- Developed market intelligence frameworks and strategic recommendations for Fortune 500 clients in CPG, retail, and fintech

STRATEGIC PROJECTS

Harry's: Long-Range Plan – Revenue Model for IPO Readiness

- Built the 3-year gross revenue model for IPO preparation, consolidating inputs from 15+ stakeholders across brands and countries into one framework adopted by Finance, Strategy, and the C-suite
- Owned the planning process end to end: built the templates and fact packs, then designed and facilitated a 3-day executive workshop to lock the revenue plan

Harry's: SKU Rationalization – Portfolio Optimization

- Built the company's first portfolio optimization framework from scratch, combining Finance, Supply Chain, and outside data across 1,000+ SKUs; identified the bottom 33% of performers, added +50bps to gross margin, and recovered $10M in inventory
- Ran the executive steering committee and drove cross-functional execution of each decision with Finance and Supply Chain

Personal Projects: The Buddy Apps – 6 AI-Built Personal Apps portfolio link

- Built 6 personal apps with AI coding tools (Claude Code) around personal passions, from dining and training to logic puzzles and job searching; automates everyday workflows and shows bias to learn fast, stay scrappy, and ship products/workflows
- TasteBuddy (largest): live, multi-user restaurant tracking & discovery app covering 1,000+ restaurants; two AI models pull live web reviews and route each question to the cheapest model that can answer it
- SweatBuddy: training dashboard combining Garmin, Strava, and WHOOP data across bike, run, swim, and strength; used to rebuild health from a wheelchair to cycling up mountains
